

Day 23: Linen Closet

Today, we'll tackle the linen closet -- and it's easier than you might think!

We a few guidelines, and tricks, and inspirational photos, you'll be opening your linen closet door to all your guests -- a closet you'll be proud of.

Checklist

Objective: to freshen up and reorganize the linen closet so everything is easy to find and accessible.

- Remove all items from the linen closet and sort by bedding for each bedroom, towels for each bathroom and table cloths, runners and table napkins.
- From the sorts, divide out seasonal items and special occasion items from everyday use.
- Return any items that belong in other rooms immediately.
- Wipe out the shelves, walls and doors of the linen closet.
- For bulky items, store in a plastic container, zippered bag or pillowcase to keep them dust free and locate on a top shelf.
- Next store out of season or special occasion linens also on a top shelf. If possible, store in zippered bag to keep free of dust.
- Eliminate any linens that are overly worn or are missing pieces if you have other sets in good condition (like bedsheets).
- Refold all towels and bedsheet sets that will remain.
- Locate towels and bedsheets at eye level.
- Locate occasional use items in the back or the top of the closet.
- For supplies kept in the linen closet, create functional storage to corral small, like items.
